

20 Best Mystery Books For When You Want to Play Sherlock

Get out the magnifying glass. It's time to get sleuthin'.

BY LIZZ SCHUMER

BANTAM

12 OF 20

'The Sweetness at the Bottom of the Pie'

Alan Bradleyamazon.com

~~$17.00~~

$12.73 (25% off)

SHOP NOW

When she finds a dead bird with a postage stamp in its beak on the porch of the once-grand Buckshaw mansion, poison enthusiast Flavia de Luce is both appalled and delighted. Hours later, a man takes his dying breaths in Flavia's cucumber patch and it all snowballs from there. You'll love the fresh, captivating voice of Flavia in this first installment of a delightful mystery series.

LIZZ SCHUMER Staff Writer Lizz Schumer is the staff writer for Good Housekeeping, Woman's Day, and Prevention, covering pets, culture, lifestyle, books, and entertainment.